

Name: _____ Date: _____ Pd. _____

Extended Response: How does an unstable government affect its people?
This is for a grade! Answer all the questions thoroughly. Homework if not completed in class.

Section I (14 pts)

1. Define unstable government (4 pts)
2. Give an example of something that makes a government unstable (2 pts each = 4 pts)
3. Provide a specific example/scenario of an unstable government (from the unit) (3 pts)
4. Explain why that government would be considered unstable (3 pts)

Section II Famine (20 pts)

5. Define famine (5 pts)
6. Explain how famine impacts a specific population in Africa (5 pts)
7. Explains how famine affects a government's ability to do its job (5 pts)
8. Gives a specific example of what a government is/is not doing to combat the issue (5 pts)

Section III AIDS/HIV (20 pts)

9. Define medical epidemic (2 pts)

10. Explains why AIDS/HIV is considered an epidemic using specific data (3 pts)

11. Explains how AIDS/HIV impacts a specific population in Africa (5 pts)

12. Explains how AIDS/HIV affects a government's ability to do its job (5 pts)

13. Give a specific example of what a government is/is not doing to combat the issue (5 pts)

Section IV Obstacles to Education (20 pts)

14. Define obstacle to education (2 pts)

15. Give an example of an obstacle to education in Africa (3 pts)

16. Explain why that is an obstacle (5 pts)

17. Explain how obstacles to education affect a specific population in Africa (5 pts)

18. Give a specific example of what a government is/is not doing to combat the issue (5 pts)